Give a guy a typewriter and the title editor and overnight he too becomes an expert in all fields. And the strange thing is that we accept these experts and help promote their opinions and ideas.

How else can you explain how Ralph Nader can continue to intimidate Congress, industrial leaders, educators and the legal profession as he seeks to establish himself as The World's Greatest Authority.

Not since Leonardo da Vinci in the 15th century has there been any one man so expert in so many fields. The difference between Ralph Nader and Leonardo da Vinci is that the latter demonstrated he was a bona fide genius in a number of fields. Nader seems mainly interesteed in closing things down.

Mrs. Elkins Is Honored By P-TA Here Thursday

Mrs. Harvey (Maude) Elkins was named recipient of the state life membership at the Thursday afternoon meeting of Hamlin Elementary Parent-Teachers Association.

Mrs. Young said, "Just as there is a difference in living life to its fullest and merely existing, there is a difference in a good teacher and one who teaches to his greatest potential. The difference lies in showing concern not only for the intellectual well being of a child, but for the emotional and physical well being as well. No child should be deprived of this kind of concern for his total well being."

"The really great teacher sees beyond the day-to-day routine of responsibility, showing real empathy, he sees the inner heart of his

Let's conserve fuel...and help drive down the high cost of living.

You know that stop and go driving wastes gas. But did you know that even in light traffic, your gas mileage drops off by 15%? And in heavy traffic by more than 45% when compared with 40-miles-per-hour in unobstructed traffic? Under these conditions gas mileage of 17 miles-per-gallon drops to somewhere around nine.

Traffic congestion costs you in other ways. too. Nearly everything we use food, clothing, appliances, necessities and luxuries alike-travels by truck. And when operating costs go up due to poor road conditions, guess whose grocery bill goes up?

We could keep traffic flowing more smoothly, a lot more economically, and a lot less wastefully, by improving road conditions. Like paving or repaving sub-standard roads. By putting passing lanes on steep hills. By replacing narrow and weakened bridges, widening underpasses, getting rid of bottlenecks.

Smooth, steady driving means lower fuel consumption, thus lower operating costs. And that means one less thing to drive up today's prices. The Road Information Program, Inc., 485 National Press Building, Washington, D.C. 20004.

Your roads. You've got a lot riding on them.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO (February 15, 1924)

From reports of the Tax Collector's office, Hamlin people are all going to vote this year. There were 1039 receipts issued, far surpassing anything ever shown in this box. Last year only 666 polls were paid. It is safe to say that the Hamlin box will vote around 1000 in the July Primary.

The Medford Hotel is no longer just a rooming house. It now has an up-to-date dining service under the management of Mr. J. R. Wilson, a brother of M. Y. Wilson. He has been ringing the good old dinner bell all week and that of itself assures the hungry feeling that is soon satisfied when one sits down to eat.

Fire destroyed the good farm home of T. B. Middleton last Sunday morning, with practically all the contents destroyed. Mr. Middleton had gone to church at Wise Chapel and it is not certain how the fire started. Some think it was caused by an oil stove.

Wednesday of last week, Hamlin had the pleasure of a visit by a number of Katy officials, who came through to Rotan and back purely on a good fellowship mission. While in Hamlin these men had the pleasure of meeting the city officials and a number of business men. From their conversation, it would appear that the Katy officials will rebuild the water tank at the station and do other improving.

(February 19, 1954) Census report shows that 49,176 bales of cotton were ginned in Jones County from the crop of 1953 prior to Jan. 16, 1954, as compared with 5,049 bales for the crop of 1952. Ginnings are estimated to reach about 55,000 bales when the entire crop is in.

Hamlin's quota for the annual Red Cross has been set at $1,741, according to the co-chairmen in the community for the 1954 campaign for funds. Hamlin community last year raised $1,353.67. The drive will officially get underway Mar.4.

Considerable gain in scholastic count of the Hamlin Consolidated Independent School District has already been recorded over last year and further gains are expected. Enumerations tabulated Tuesday of student counts showed that there are 1,081 children of school age. Last year's scholatic count at the completion of the enumeration was 1,038.

Observance of National 4-H Club Week in Jones County will be climaxed with the coronation of the county 4-H Club king and queen in the Anson Grade School gymnasium Friday night, Mar. 12.

legislators hang on his every word. Nader has appeared as an expert witness on auto safety, air safety, railway management, land use, nursing home management, band operations, ecology, fish canneries and hot dogs. He testifies at the drop of a hat and testifies in absolute confidence in all these fields and dozen of others.

Being the World's Foremost Authority is sort of like eating peanuts. Once you start, you can't give it up. So Nader's latest field of expertise is as a nuclear expert. Overnight he has added this field to his list and says that nuclear energy is too dangerous to use.

Ant the strange thing is that his testimony will carry more weight with Congress and even the general public than will a whole battery of scientists who have spent their whole life studying the subject.

Walter Buckel, publisher of The Lamesa Press-Reporter, says he hopes that the people up in New Jersey, Florida, New York and Oregon have long, long memories.

He quotes a copyright story in the Dallas Morning News where John Hill, the Federal Energy Office official in charge of the proposed national gasoline rationing plan, says he was going to take gasoline away from Texas motorists.

Hill was quoted as saying that further gasoline shortages in Texas will be ordered by the government in order to "make sure that everyone suffers the same."

Hill said in Dallas that those areas in the nation which now have more gas than others will lose some.

The official said gasoline will be taken away from Texas and other states this month to send to areas that have lesser supplies.

Hill told the people in Dallas that the gasoline would be going to states like New Jersey, Florida, Oregon and Hawaii.

Texas now has 88.6 percent of the gasoline available in 1972. Hill said this will be reduced to the 83.3 nationwide average within the next 30 days.

Buckel says, "That's fine and good. People should share with one another. . . it's been an American custom since the founding of this country.

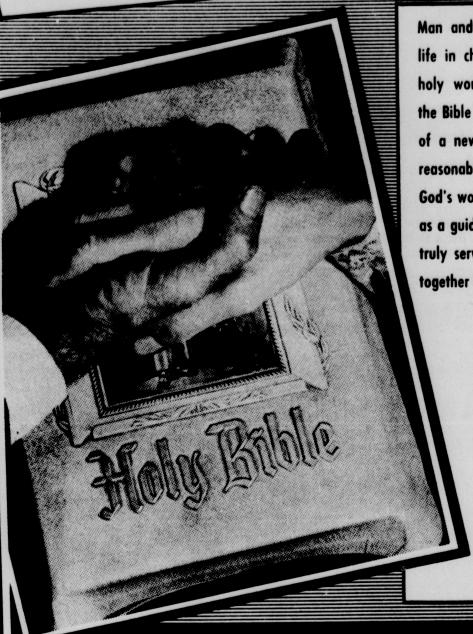

"Oil and gas are considered natural resources of this country and we suppose should be shared by one and all on an equal basis. That's fair enough!

"But," Buckel says, "water is also a natural resource of this country. . and we hope in the years ahead that if Texas' share of the nation's supply of water drops below an 83.3 percent nationwide average, Washington officials will rush to the forefront and see that the water is shared equally among all the states."

Buckel said, "We simply have the utmost faith that Senators Proxmire. Kennedy, Fullbright and all those other fair-minded boys in Washington will rush to our aid in our times of water need."

"Can't you just see it-but don't try holding your breath," he added. "It'd be more sensible to start practicing doing without water."

The TIE that Binds...

Man and woman began their married life in church and according to God's holy word are joined together. With the Bible as the basis for the beginning of a new life together, it seems only reasonable that a continued study of God's word would strengthen and serve as a guide to any couple. The Bible can truly serve as a tie that will bind two together in accord. The church as God's > agency on earth can help you in Bible study, and with the guidance of the Holy Spirit can help you to understand God's will in your life.

"And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones; and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not." Isaiah 58-11

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

NEWS FROM Sylvester

As this is being written on Monday we have a 50 percent chance of rain tonight. How we hope that it will happen. The kites were flying high over the Roy Kiser home this weekend as the children of Jerry and Ruth Ann Kiser of Abilene were enjoying every minute of the high wind that was blowing. Also visiting in the Kiser home over the weekend was Martha Williams of Odessa and we hope to soon have her as a resident of our community. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spikes of Abilene and Mrs. Allie Ward of Hamlin also stayed the weekend.

Our sympathy to the Sanders family due to the accidential death of her son, W. A. Fomby.

By MRS. R. M. BABB

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Stone of Haskell visited in the R. M. Babb home last Thursday.

We are so grateful that no one was hurt in the accident last Saturday night when a car that was being trailed behind another came loose and went into the side of the Douglass building. Quite a large hole was made in the building, but again no one was hurt.

Checked at Simmons Memorial hospital in Sweetwater yesterday and Sweetwater.

Mrs. Young Takes Part In Workshop

Mrs. Richard Young Jr., elementary reading teacher, was one of five area teachers among the 40 Right to Read directors participating in the statewide workshop in Austin that was held last week in Austin.

Each specialist attending the one-week workshop supervises one of the Right to Read programs serving as demonstration sites for other elementary or secondary school efforts in Texas.

The total 30 days of special training, spaced to increase the teaching skills of Texas reading supervisors over a six-month period, is financed under an $184,000 grant from the U.S. Office of Education and is coordinated by the Texas Education Agency and the 20 Regional Education Service Centers in Texas.

Jack Wright isn't doing well at all. He has spent some five weeks there in room 135.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown spent Sunday afternoon with the Prather family in down in the lower left hand corner at the bottom of the page I found this item:

I have thought this over at great length and have decided it has great possibilities.

For example, it is undoubtedly true that a silent cat with eyes that see in the dark has an unfair advantage over an innocent bird sleeping the night through on a tree branch resting his voice for the next day's singing, but you've got to remember that a silent bird sweeping through the air on motion-less wings has an unfair advantage over a grasshopper. Clearly, all birds ought to be belled. If you don't care about grasshoppers, what about butterflies?

The un-belled coyote sweeping down on the fold in the night has an unfair advantage over a resting sheep, as does the un-belled lion over the sleeping antelope, the unbelled fox over the roosting chickens, the un-belled elephant over the nest of baby mice in his path as he plods heavy-footed to the water

The un-belled politician slipping in and out of the office of an unprincipled tycoon has an unfair advantage over Ralph Nader.

In short, all God's creatures need bells and I'm all for it if I can get in on the ground floor of some good, aggressive bell manufac-

Now it won't get you there any faster, in fact you are not always sure it is going to get you there at all, butyou sure think you goint fast. At 55 it keeps you looking at the speedometer to see if you aren't going 80 or 90.

While we Americans may be in for a long siege of shortages of everything from fuel to food, the one thing that we will never run out of is experts. But then that is mainly because we require so few qualifications for one to become an expert.

Have you ever noticed how any one who is successful in one field is an over night expert in all fields. Anyone who is wealthy seems to be an expert at anything you want to name. Give a guy a typewriter and the title editor and overnight he too becomes an expert in all fields. And the strange thing is that we accept these experts and help promote their opinions and ideas.

How else can you explain how Ralph Nader can continue to intimidate Congress, industrial leaders, educators and the legal profession as he seeks to establish himself as The World's Greatest Authority.

Not since Leonardo da Vinci in the 15th century has there been any one man so expert in so many fields. The difference between Ralph Nader and Leonardo da Vinci is that the latter demonstrated he was a bona fide genius in a number of fields. Nader has merely succeeded in convincing politicians that he knows all about everything.

Mrs. Elkins Is Honored By P-TA Here Thursday

Mrs. Harvey (Maude) Elkins was named recipient of the state life membership at the Thursday afternoon meeting of Hamlin Elementary Parent-Teachers Association.

In making the presentation, Mrs. Donald Young said, "She is loved and admired not only by her students, but by the parents with whom she has good communication."

Mrs. Young said, "Just as there is a difference in living life to its fullest and merely existing, there is a difference in a good teacher and one who teaches to his greatest potential. The difference lies in showing concern not only for the intellectual well being of a child, but for the emotional and physical well being as well. No child should be deprived of this kind of concern for his total well being.'

Let's conserve fuel...and help drive down the high cost of living.

You know that stop and go driving wastes gas. But did you know that even in light traffic, your gas mileage drops off by 15%? And in heavy traffic by more than 45% when compared with 40-miles-per-hour in unobstructed traffic? Under these conditions gas mileage of 17 miles-per-gallon drops to somewhere around nine.

Traffic congestion costs you in other ways. too. Nearly everything we use food, clothing, appliances. necessities and luxuries alike-travels by truck. And when operating costs go up due to poor road conditions. guess whose grocery bill goes up?

We could keep traffic flowing more smoothly. a lot more economically, and a lot less wastefully, by improving road conditions. Like paving or repaving sub-standard roads. By putting passing lanes on steep hills. By replacing narrow and weakened bridges, widening underpasses, getting rid of bottlenecks.

Smooth, steady driving means lower fuel consumption, thus lower operating costs. And that means one less thing to drive up today's prices. The Road Information Program, Inc., 485 National Press Building, Washington, D.C. 20004.

Your roads. You've got a lot riding on them.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO (February 15, 1924)

From reports of the Tax Collector's office. Hamlin people are all going to vote this year. There were 1039 receipts issued, far surpassing anything ever shown in this box. Last year only 666 polls were paid. It is safe to say that the Hamlin box will vote around 1000 in the July Primary.

The Medford Hotel is no longer just a rooming house. It now has an up-to-date dining service under the management of Mr. J. R. Wilson, a brother of M. Y. Wilson. He has been ringing the good old dinner bell all week and that of itself assures the hungry feeling that is soon satisfied when one sits down to eat.

Fire destroyed the good farm home of T. B. Middleton last Sunday morning, with practically all the contents destroyed. Mr. Middleton had gone to church at Wise Chapel and it is not certain how the fire started. Some think it was caused by an oil stove.

Wednesday of last week, Hamlin had the pleasure of a visit by a number of Katy officials, who came through to Rotan and back purely on a good fellowship mission. While in Hamlin these men had the pleasure of meeting the city officials and a number of business men. From their conversation, it would appear that the Katy officials will rebuild the water tank at the station and do other improving.

And What Have You

legislators hang on his every word. Nader has appeared as an expert witness on auto safety, air safety, railway management, land use, nursing home management, band operations, ecology, fish canneries and hot dogs. He testifies at the drop of a hat and testifies in absolute confidence in all these fields and dozen of others.

Being the World's Foremost Authority is sort of like eating peanuts. Once you start, you can't give it up. So Nader's latest field of expertise is as a nuclear expert. Overnight he has added this field to his list and says that nuclear energy is too dangerous to use.

Ant the strange thing is that his testimony will carry more weight with Congress and even the general public than will a whole battery of scientists who have spent their whole life studying the subject.

Walter Buckel, publisher of The Lamesa Press-Reporter, says he hopes that the people up in New Jersey, Florida, New York and Oregon have long, long memories.

He quotes a copyright story in the Dallas Morning News where John Hill, the Federal Energy Office official in charge of the proposed national gasoline rationing plan, says he was going to take gasoline away from Texas motorists.

Hill was quoted as saying that further gasoline shortages in Texas will be ordered by the government in order to "make sure that everyone suffers the same."

Hill said in Dallas that those areas in the nation which now have more gas than others will lose some.

The official said gasoline will be taken away from Texas and other states this month to send to areas that have lesser supplies.

Hill told the people in Dallas that the gasoline would be going to states like New Jersey, Florida, Oregon and Hawaii.

Texas now has 88.6 percent of the gasoline available in 1972. Hill said this will be reduced to the 83.3 nationwide average within the next 30 days.

Buckel says, "That's fine and good. People should share with one another. . . it's been an American custom since the founding of this country.

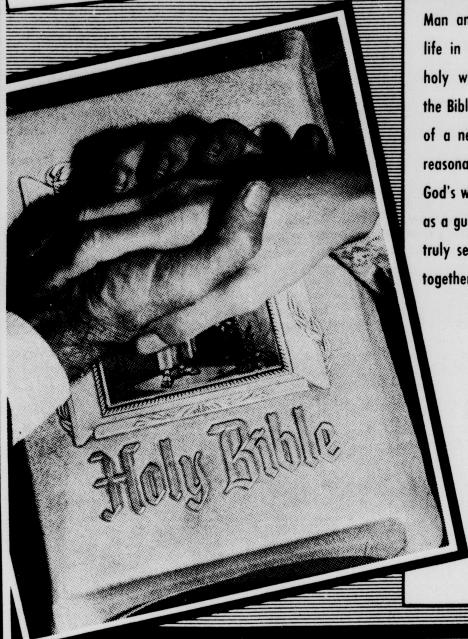

"Oil and gas are considered natural resources of this country and we suppose should be shared by one and all on an equal basis. That's fair enough!

"But." Buckel says, "water is also a natural resource of this country. . and we hope in the years ahead that if Texas' share of the nation's supply of water drops below an 83.3 percent nationwide average, Washington officials will rush to the forefront and see that the water is shared equally among all the states."

Buckel said, "We simply have the utmost faith that Senators Proxmire, Kennedy, Fullbright and all those other fair-minded boys in Washington will rush to our aid in our times of water need."

"Can't you just see it—but don't try holding your breath," he added. "It'd be more sensible to start practicing doing without water."

The TIE that Binds...

Man and woman began their married life in church and according to God's holy word are joined together. With the Bible as the basis for the beginning of a new life together, it seems only reasonable that a continued study of God's word would strengthen and serve as a guide to any couple. The Bible can truly serve as a tie that will bind two together in accord. The church as God's

"And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones; and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not." Isaiah 58-11

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God Coleman Adv. By MRS. R. M. BABB

As this is being written on Monday we have a 50 percent chance of rain tonight. How we hope that it will happen.

The kites were flying high over the Roy Kiser home this weekend as the children of Jerry and Ruth Ann Kiser of Abilene were enjoying every minute of the high wind that was blowing. Also visiting in the Kiser home over the weekend was Martha Williams of Odessa and we hope to soon have her as a resident of our community. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spikes of Abilene and Mrs. Allie Ward of Hamlin also stayed the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Stone of Haskell visited in the R. M. Babb home last Thursday.

We are so grateful that no one was hurt in the accident last Saturday night when a car that was being trailed behind another came loose and went into the side of the Douglass building. Quite a large hole was made in the building, but again no one was hurt.

"Environmentalists of Deerfield Beach, Florida, have persuaded the city council to pass an ordinance requiring owners to tie bells on their cats, claiming the silent cats are killing off too many birds. Owners of unbelled cats will be fined $25."

I have thought this over at great length and have decided it has great possibilities.

For example, it is undoubtedly true that a silent cat with eyes that see in the dark has an unfair advantage over an innocent bird sleeping the night through on a tree branch resting his voice for the next day's singing, but you've got to that was held last week in remember that a silent bird sweeping through the air on motion-less wings has an unfair advantage over a grasshopper.
